PIMPLES ON FACE CAUSED GREAT DISFIGUREMENT

For Three Long Years, Suffered Great Deal. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Brought Marvelous Results. In Few Weeks Cured Completely.

"I was troubled with acne for three long years. My face was the only part affected, but it caused great disfigurement, also suffering and loss of sleep. At first there appeared red, hard pimples which later contained white matter. I suffered a great deal caused by the itching. I was in a state of perplexity when walking the streets or anywhere before the public."

"I used pills and other remedies but they failed completely. I thought of giving up when nothing would help, but something told me to try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I sent for a Cuticura Booklet which I read carefully. Then I bought some Cuticura Soap and Ointment and by following the directions I was relieved in a few days. I used Cuticura Soap for washing my face, and applied the Cuticura Ointment morning and evening. This treatment brought marvelous results so I continued with it for a few weeks and was cured completely. I can truthfully say that the Cuticura Remedies are not only all, but more than they claim to be." (Signed) G. Baume, 1015 W. 20th Place, Chicago, Ill., May 28, 1911.

For more than a generation Cuticura Remedies have afforded the most economical treatment for affections of the skin and scalp. A cake of Cuticura Soap (25c) and a box of Cuticura Ointment (50c) are often sufficient. Although sold throughout the world, a liberal sample of each, with 25c back on the skin, will be sent free, on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 23A, Boston.

Pure Love.

Why Buy Indigestion?

If you knew how much land your grocer sells couldn't you tell pretty well how much indigestion there is in the neighborhood? Land is made from hog fat and is often indigestible. It is heavier in your stomach than on the scales. Buy Cottolene, however, and you get a vegetable-oil cooking fat that is as pure and wholesome as olive oil. Besides, Cottolene is more economical than butter or lard—one-third less being required.

Remember, Cottolene contains no hog fat; there's no lard indigestion in food cooked with Cottolene.

ARGUMENT STARTS IN TOBACCO CASE

Wickersham Says He Tried to Bring About New Condition.

New York, N. Y., Oct. 31.—Attorney general Wickersham this afternoon began his argument for the government in the hearings on the reorganization of the tobacco trust.

Realizing the gravity of the situation which confronted the government and the court in this case, the attorney general continued, "I have done all in my power to aid in bringing about a new condition without resort to a receivership and I have conferred frequently with your honors and counsel for the defendants to that end."

"I would have been entirely untrue to my trust if I had failed to take that view of the case and extended my powers toward that end."

In opening his statement, the attorney general said he confessed "a great deal of sympathy" with the independent tobacco interests fighting the reorganization plan and that he did not feel much concern over extraordinary fears expressed by the American Tobacco company representatives.

"I can readily see," he continued, "how men who have been fighting each other for years should come here asking the court to cripple his enemy and his property over to him. That, however, is not the function of this court, and in such a case as this, we must turn a deaf ear to considerations that might appeal to our human sense, that it may not move our legal judgment."

That the general plan of reorganization is a practical, commercial one, the attorney general expressed belief. The objection that the proposed division of brands would not permit of competition he appeared to believe unfounded.

"We think if this plan is safeguarded that it will restore competition," he said. "We are dealing in a measure in conjecture. I have for that reason asked that for a period of five years the government reserve the right to seek further relief."

One feature of this combination has caused more complaint in my opinion, than all others," continued Mr. Wickersham, "and that is the United Cigar Stores company. That has been the hand of the trust reaching out over the country to harass the domestic trade. If that concern be cut loose in this plan, it will do more than anything else can do to make this plan of reorganization acceptable to the people of this country."

DEEP MYSTERY IN INDIANAPOLIS CRIME
Dr. Helene Knabe, of Indianapolis, whose mysterious murder, has baffled the police of that city. Dr. Knabe, who was former state bacteriologist, was found with her throat cut, lying on the bed in her apartments in the fashionable Delaware flats. The police have been unable to supply a motive for the brutal murder, nor do they entertain the theory of suicide. They are inquiring closely into the antecedents of the slain woman physician in the hope that something may be unmasked to supply them with a clue.

ABUSE OF THE DEAD.

Queer Custom of the Bagas Forebears of French Guinea.

The Bagas Forebears, who live in French Guinea, quit life in a manner anything but commonplace. When a man dies his wife and children do not lament him. Instead they are angry at having been abandoned. They prop the body up against the house with the forked branch of a tree and invite their friends and relatives to come, all of whom are furious that one of their own has left them. When all the guests have arrived the wife of the deceased advances and addresses what was once her husband in a way well calculated to scare his ghost away from the neighborhood.

"There now, listen! You'd leave me, would you? So you don't want to live with me? Why do you do this way? Haven't I always been a good wife to you? Haven't I been a good mother to your children? Haven't your rice and fish always been well cooked? Have you anything to reproach me with? Nothing. Then shall not you go? Coward! Traitor! You shall not leave without receiving the correction that such conduct deserves."

Then the blows begin to rain down upon the poor defenseless figure. Presently the tired wife gives place to the children, and they in turn to the relatives and friends, all of whom similarly abuse it. At length, with a natural human impulse, their fury spent, they try to make amends to the hapless corpse. They bathe it and bury it a meter deep inside the house, and each day at the dinner hour the family places on the tomb some grains of rice and a little palm wine for refreshment of the soul should it return.—Washington Post.
